LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

SHOWERS

Have you been sitting on the stairway steps lately -- to a shower?? Uncomfortable to say the least.

I am going to harp on showers, (bridal & baby) right now, for I feel they have reached an unlimited peak. If we are battling with inflation, I'm afraid showers are showing a poor example. Some of you I am sure, have been invited to these evening outings with a faint, or no, recollection of of whom the shower is honouring. Maybe you know the hostess, and that is the reason for your invitation. You are assembled in an overcrowded room, someone has to run next door for extra chairs. (More women turned up than expected, but all invited of course). We participate in games, an enjoyable evening passing, but the prizes!!! Prizes unlimited!!! It's getting to be like a games night. We go to see if we are lucky enough to take home a prize or prizes. Time now for gift unwrapping. The OHS and AHS begin. Silence --- my $2.98 set of bowls get embarrassing silence!! They are "blushingly" passed from hand to hand ahead of the beautiful electric Fry-Pan and behind the shiny new Toaster. (Or my T-Shirt and set of Bibs against the little ruffled $8.00 Dress.) The embarrassing (for me that is) mist hangs as we are ushered to the table of food. Food!!! The gorgeous banquet of salads, meats, sweet, and you name it.

The old reasoning for showers is lost in the sea of over-extravagance and over-crowdedness. "The Jones' had 50 persons invited so we must make it 60". Showers are meant to show our glad tidings for a new birth or a new bride, not to try and get better and more things than 'Susie'. The saying "I had to invite 50 to get enough to show up" is a worn out phrase. If the people don't show up, maybe they feel as I do, 'There will be plenty of women there, I wnn't be missed. Anyway, that's an extra seat if I don't go', or, 'I really don't know her too well'. If one does not show up there is always a reason, and if they know the person well, they will usually get a gift to her.

Remember the good old days of hair-pin and safety-pin prizes? Didn't we have just as much fun? And what of bread-pan, towel, dishcloth, diapers and T-shirt gifts? Are not they the necessity of home-starting and baby arrivals? Do they have to be replaced with huge Wedding and Baby arrival gifts? They have their own places at the appropriate times, not at a shower.

Just because 'Mrs. Jones' 'ill fated' her budget, do we have to? Remember the other four showers coming up this month? Can you afford $5 - $10 per gift, $20 - $40 per month? I can't!!!

My opinion is that a price limit of $2 - $3 should be placed on gifts. I'm sure no one would be offended if asked to bring something worth $3 or less. Many, many things can be purchased at that price Bowls, aprins, cloths, pots & pans, diapers, T-shirts, bottles, and scores of other useful items.

Maybe you are wondering where inflation comes into the picture. Well isn't it a fact that the more things get sold, the higher their prices rise? If they are selling lots of toasters, etc., won't the price gradually rise. Sales come from slow selling items. Cutting down on our budget will fight inflation.

I have heard many, many remarks about the expense of showers, over--'crowdedness' etc. From this letter maybe some of those people will come out and express their views for or against. Because of the over-extravagance of showers, some places I know of, have cut them out all together, and are called "Begging Parties". Is this what will happen here? Maybe we can do something before the caterers get called in, the halls hired out, the bars open -- for a shower!! Or, are we too late.

INFLATION FIGHTER

Dear Editor,

Maybe some reader or readers of your paper, 'The Carol Link' can answer my question -- "Are there just one way streets in Wabush?"

It is getting harder and harder to drive in Wabush because of the DOUBLE parking from one end of the streets to the other. Maybe a better question would be "Is double parking legal in Wabush?" It certainly seems to be, and if so maybe its time for new and wider streets so cars can travel freely without scraping cars on either side of the street. The town manager might be of help in the questions, or, maybe he doesn't drive a car.

NOTICE.... The April meeting of the Jackman Memorial Hospital Ladies Auxiliary was held in the Hospital cafeteria on April 27th. Mrs. Hammond presided over the meeting with 20 ladies in attendance. During the business session, it was decided that our annual Christmas Bazaar will be held Saturday, November 21, 1970. Govenors were appointed and plans are underway to ensure another successful bazaar.

Reports from various committees were given and it was brought out that more French novels and storybooks would be appreciated for use on the hospital auxiliary library cart. If anyone has french books they wish to donate, please contact Mrs. R.C. Baxter 282-6902. This donation would be gratefully received.

The Home Auxiliary is now underway with Mrs. Joy Porter as its convenor. It was set up for interested persons in doing something for the hospital but who are unable to attend regular meetings or do volunteer work. Any ladies who like to knit, sew, embroider, crochet, or make bazaar novelties are encouraged to phone Mrs. Porter at 944-2414. She will supply, free of charge, all the materials necessary and pick-up and delivery service will be provided for both Labrador City and Wabush. These items will be used by the auxiliary for its bazaar or for sale items in a hospital show case, as money - raising projects.

The evening ended with an entertainment skit featuring Mrs. A.Bryans and Mrs. A.C.Henderson and a game of charades provided a lot of fun for all.

The May meeting will be held on Monday May 25ht. anyone is welcome to attend.

THE BROWNIES FO LABRADOR CITY WISH TO THANK ALL THE PEOPLE WHO CONTRIBUTED TO THEIR MOTHER'S DAY TEA. A SPECIAL THANKS TO ALL THE MOTHERS WHO MADE THE DAY SUCH A SUCCESS AND A MEMORABLE ONE TO THE brownies.

NATS COLUMN

VAROOOOM--- 2:00am. VAROOOOM--- WHAT is happenning??? - Is the world coming to an end?? - What is all that noise??? Where am I.

How"s that MUDDER for a start?

The opening is in reference to the rude awakening I received the other morning.

In Ontario they have a law regarding noise levels. Is there not a similar one in our fair Province? I know that there is a law regarding disturbance of the peace, so, could our local law enforcers use this against our noisemakers?

VAROOOOM--- 3:00am. VARO O O M. They're at it again, - my little Honda will never catch them. Oh well, maybe I can get back to sleep. Sun"s coming up, not much use of going back to bed, maybe tomorrow night I will be able to identify them. VAR O O O M.

SQUEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEELEEEE--- SCHREEEEEEEEK--- Sunday afternoon, or should I say Sunday evening in our shopping centre, with hundreds walking to the theatre. What maniacs are behind the wheels of these over-powered wagons. The speed limit in this area is 10 mph., and one does not have to get to this speed in two seconds flat. SCHREEEK.
It is time to put a stop to it. SCHREEEEEEK.

Dragsters on Bartlett and Hudson Drive still at it.

Happy Mother's Day to all MOTHERS, especially to my own back in Ottawa Valley.

LOVE, NATS.

MAY 8th 1970

DURING OUR LIVES

Every so often a date appears on our calendars which is a real mile stone in history. "May 8, 1970" is one. A pause should be made to consider it's implications.

On this date we will be commemorating the 25th anniversary of the ending of the war in Europe, "VE Day".

As the sages say, "Time is a great healer" which to many was a real need, but must the wound be healed so well that all memory of it be erased. As in our modern world be the case.

It is certain that those who served had no lofty ideals of democracy. Those were for more learned men such as MacKenzie King T.D.Roosevelt, Churchill etc., but, it was realized by one and all that Hitler and his gang were oppressing people in Europe and this although likely had no lofty definitions. This did not appeal to them.

We Canadians have always been proud of our priveleges and freedom has always been high on the list. Therefore to maintain these ideals, 47,000 Canadians laid down their lives and they must be remembered at all times and at this time in particular, or we shall loose what they died for, "Freedom".

Today, when we watch television or listed to the radio, we must all wonder what is happening. Have our standards changed, are loyalties to our country gone? But upon closer investigation we find it is the few making the loudest noises therefore are heard the most, but the young man and woman down the street are as sincere as their forebearers. Possibly moreso because their education is greater therefore they are more intelligent and better able to reason. They deplore the conditions that exist in the world today and this may be attested to by the support that they give to legal peace organizations such as UNICEF etc.

But it is always important to remember the men and women who laid down their lives and even those who have only served. And this is one of the times when memory should become most vivid.

There is an organization in Canada which hopes that it will no longer exist in 50 years time, at least with it's present qualifications for membership in force. They are a real adversary of war and that is the Royal Canadian Legion, and one of the ways that we fight war is to recall to memory of our people, the damage that war has done to Canada. Not only in the moneytaryway but also in the irreplaceable lives of our youth lost in two world wars and Korea.

Therefore we request that all the people join with us at this time in silent prayer in memory of those who have died for the right we enjoy today.

THEY SHALL NOT GROW OLD AS WE THAT ARE LEFT GROW OLD.
AGE SHALL NOT WEARY THEM, NOR THE YEARS CONDEMN.
AT THE GOING DOWN OF THE SUN AND IN THE MORNING,
WE WILL REMEMBER THEM.
