Muriel Arsenault struck Doaktown, N.B. on July 18, 1952. She'd like to be a kindergarten teacher but we think she'd be more qualified as a kindergarten student. Muriel enjoys people, good books, some poetry, funny jokes, and above all sports. Our athletic-minded friend is active in all sports.

Muriel Arsenault

Dave wants to join Canada's Armed Forces. In other words, he wants to see the world through a port-hole. That's a long way to go from a modest beginning in 1949, but Corner Brook always was a good place to leave. Good luck, Dave, and don't forget to salute your superiors.

David Barron

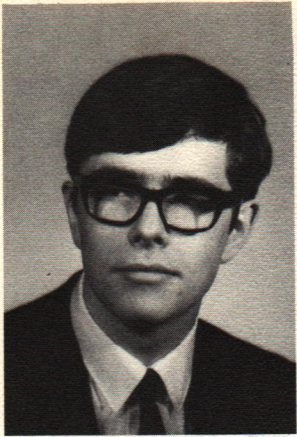

On a cloudy day in December 1951 the staff of Corner Brook Hospital heard these words "Have a game a pool?" (It was Gerry Barron challenging an opponent.) Gerry likes girls, (preferably blonds) and dislikes "smart" grade ten's. He is active in soccer and basketball. Gerry wants to be a mechanic but we see him as a professional snooker player.

Gerry Barron

Gus Barron hit Norris Arm with a thud in January 1953. He wishes to be a businessman but is likely to remain in school to help send out advertisements for the Yearbook. Gus's activities are A.Y., volleyball, soccer, Yearbook, and the Drama Club.

Gus Barron

Tim Baxter was invented in Duluth, Minn. on September 24th, 1953. He surprised the doctor when his first words were: "Whoppee Doo!!!". He takes part in all Senior sports, Student Council and is Editor in Chief of the Yearbook. Tim, who likes watching teachers go nuts over construction noise, wishes to study Political Science. We see him with a full-time job as Editor in Chief of the "Collegiate".

Tim Baxter

In the Fall of 1953 a tiny yell was heard in Virginia, Minnesota when Amy Borgeson let out with "You're kidding." She likes the "Moody Blues", and her main dislike is Exams. Amy's activities include sports, Student Council and A.Y. Amy is 5'2" and justifies her size by saying that "Good things come in small packages."

Amy Borgeson

Beverly Brace was discovered in St. John's, Newfoundland on May 26th, 1953. Bev's ambition is to become a lab technician but we see her selling paintbrushes. She likes painting and writing and just HATES arguing with someone when she knows she's right! Her activities include Prefects and Allied Youth.

Beverly Brace

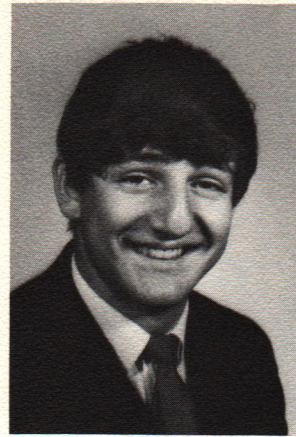

October 29th, 1953; St. John's, Nfld. Lorraine Clowe came into existence mumbling "I dunno". Lorraine wishes to be a nurse but we see her as one of the patients. Lorraine likes chewing-gum, books and boys who have black hair and brown eyes. She dislikes school and study periods unless of course there are boys there who have black hair and brown eyes.

Lorraine Clowe

"Run 'em through" was first heard in St. Anne, New Brunswick when Don Daigle arrived on December 3rd, 1953. Our future grease monkey dreams of being a fully qualified mechanic some day. (Dream on little broomstick cowboy.) Don loves nature but despises people. We hope that he finds a lovely tree for his wife.

Don Daigle

John Dicks was created in St. John's on September 22nd, 1952. His first words were: "Give us a little kiss", and he has been saying it ever since. He is active in A.Y. and coaches a minor hockey team. He is also taking a beginner's course in snow-shoveling. John dislikes Geometry and History and likes everything else. His ambition is to be a University Graduate but we think that he is destined to stay in Wabush, forever, as a permanent babysitter.

John Dicks

When Krystyna Feretycki was presented to her parents she said; "It's not what you look like to me, it's what you look like to you." This happened on February 19th, 1953 in York, Yorkshire, England. Krys dreams of being a primary school teacher but we see her sentenced to coaching Grade Eleven French Students. She is active in Prefects, A.Y., Yearbook, and sports. One of the things that Krys really enjoys is a good, scary movie. (She enjoys it even better if she has someone special to keep her company.)

Krystyna Feretycki

Humera Ghory (Honi) was born in Lahore, West Pakistan on August 12th, 1952. Whenever you hear "Erks!! You're kidding!!!", you know that Honi is around. Her great ambition is to finish school but the spirits see her married within a year. Honi likes boys, food, and travel, and despises beetroots, pettiness and homework. Her activities include sports and artwork.

Humera Ghory

Olive Gosse - Flossy or Ollie - Poe, as she is known, came into existence on Belle Island, Newfoundland, on August 26, 1952. She is often heard all around school exclaiming "God love 'em" or "What a sin!!" She wishes to join the Armed Forces or become a hair dresser, but we see her as a barber in the Merchant Marines. Olive's main activities are sports, cheerleading, drama, Yearbook and Prefects.

Olive Gosse

The sound of "I don't care" was first heard in Colliers on September 9, 1952 when Jim Hearn talked back to the midwife. Jim's activities are all sports, drama and residing over the Student Council. He dislikes grade ten's but likes beating them up or locking them in closets. His ambition is to be a lawyer but we see him as a legal defender of grade ten students.

Jim Hearn

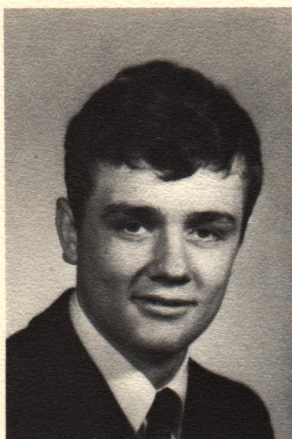

In the big city of Grand Falls, Newfoundland, Linda Hiscock made her first apologies; "Well pardon me for living." Linda's ambition is to join the Armed Forces, but, fate sees her on permanent K.P. duty in a short time. Linda likes teachers and students that she can get along with, but despises teachers who have pets- especially if it isn't her!!! Her activities are sports, and drama.

Linda Hiscock

Audrey Jerret rocked Bishop's Falls on May 25, 1953 with a wild scream of "It's against my religion". Audrey's ambition is to be a social worker, but fate sees her of picketing unemployment lines. She dislikes school, and hates getting up early in the morning; but will readily do both if boys are involved. Her activities are A.Y., prefects, and photography club.

Audrey Jerrett

Johnny La Cour first came upon the unexpected world on April 12, 1953. His favorite saying is "Gimme some money". And he is active in sports. Johnny likes girls and dislikes school. Although John's ambition is to be a lawyer, we see him as a comedian. In any case his ability to talk incessantly should serve him well.

Johnny La Cour

Dayeton Larson arrived in Atone, Manitoba on August 6, 1951. His ambition is to be a Phys. Ed teacher, but fate sees him growing old playing the guitar. Dayeton is usually heard saying, "What's the shooting off about now?" He likes single girls at dances but dislikes girls who know how old he is. His activities include playing lead guitar with the Nite Beats.

Dayeton Larson

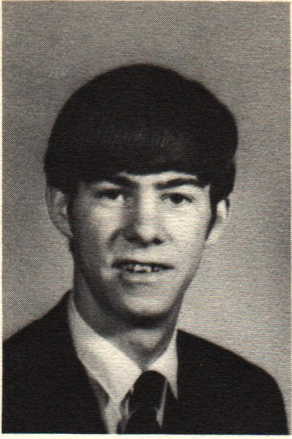

As Fintan March hit Stephenville on September 22, 1952, his first words were, "Give us a draw." Finty's active in everything except drama and prefects. His ambition is to be an electrical engineer, but we see him fixing pinball machines in the Rec. Centre. Finty likes girls with short skirts and dislikes the girls with long ones.

Fintan March

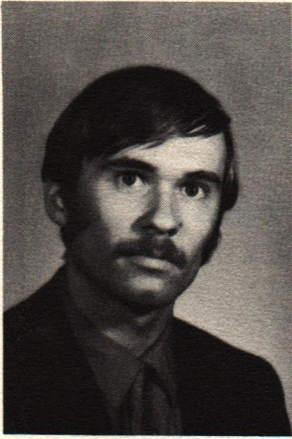

Judy Messervey hit St. George's with a bang on April 5, 1953. Her ambition is to finish grade eleven and she just might make it. She takes part in cheerleaders, sports, drama, and bowling. She likes cheering at senior games, gum, and Strange Paradise. She dislikes grade ten's coming into the grade eleven class and she often can be heard saying "Ah, Gee."

Judy Messervey

Gary Munn, known to his friends as Munster was born in Fredericton, New Brunswick on June 2, 1952. On the way home from the hospital he could be heard saying "Oh what a rogue and peasant slave am I." Gary's aim is to be a teacher, but his friends can't picture him finishing high school. Gary's activities include sports, Student Council, A.Y., and a little studying.

Gary Munn

Richard Perry, who sees all, hears all, and says nothing, was invented on March 27, 1950 in Wolfville, Nova Scotia. His main ambition is to go to college (we predict the college of fisheries in St. John's) Richard doesn't like girls who smoke. His favorite possessions are his shades and long hair. His activities include basketball, soccer, and Head Prefect.

Richard Perry

Randy Pike arrived in Bay Roberts, Newfoundland on February 7, 1954. His ambition is to be known as the flower of the class of '70 (we already see him as the blooming idiot.) Randy is usually heard saying "I forget, I think?" His likes are censored and his dislikes are premiers of Island Provinces. His activities include sports, and writing love letters (to Jean Bealiveau, Randy").

Randy Pike

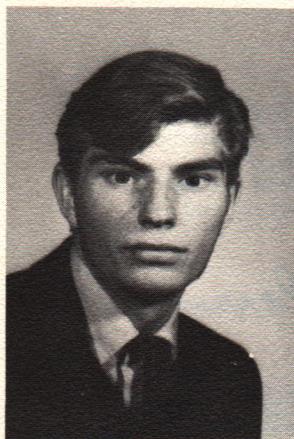

Bev Porter made her first appearance in St. George's, Newfoundland on January 8, 1953. Her first words were "What a man!!!" Bev is active in drama, Yearbook, curling, bowling, and inter-mural sports. She likes hockey games (especially a certain hockey stick and its owner.) Bev wants to be a hairdresser, but fate deems her to be a barber for the Montreal Canadiens.

Bev Porter

St. John's, Newfoundland first heard the sound of "Learn to love one another right now," on February 26, 1953, when Michelle Rowe made her debut. Her ambition is to see the world, but fate sees her as Mrs. T. B. before she gets the chance. Michelle likes swimming, dancing, travelling, and popular music; but dislikes sadness and loneliness. She takes an active part in Yearbook, A.Y., photography club, prefects, and drama.

Michelle Rowe

Barry Saunders made the scene officially at Badger, Newfoundland on April 25, 1952. He takes part in all sports and can often be heard saying, "Gimme a smoke." He likes jeans, jet boots, and money/ but dislikes empty pockets and short hair. Barry wishes to be a tradesman, but fate portrays him as having nothing to trade.

Barry Saunders

Though born in the chilly month of November, Dorothy is one of the "warmer" members of the graduation class. She likes everything but scary movies and frogs; (the kind you dissect in Biology). Dot hopes to be a teacher but intends to stay out of all science labs. Her favorite saying is "Such vulgarity!"

Dorothy Smeaton

Janet Taverner "came - by - chance" in Come - by - Chance, Newfoundland, on June 27, 1953. She hopes to become a secretary, but we predict a professional pencil sharpener. She is often heard exclaiming "Oh, My!!!" Janet's weakness is a certain guy from Victoria, and among her dislikes is answering questions for a certain teacher. Her activities include being a prefect.

Janet Taverner

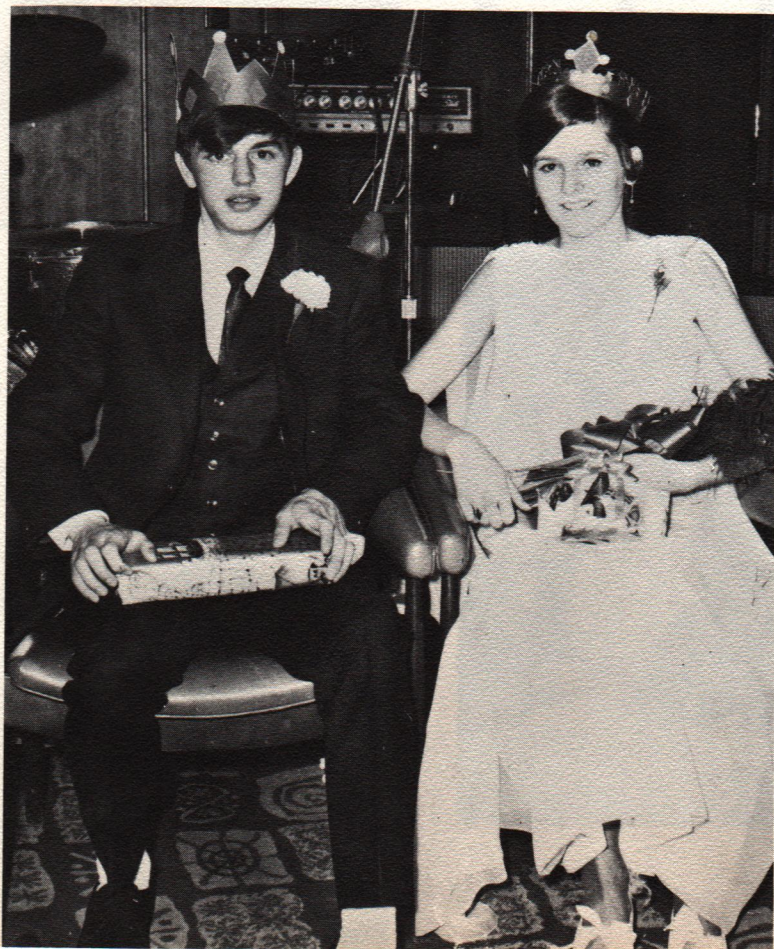

Roni Voight first cried out "Hey man!!!", on February 11th, 1951 in, of all places, Germany. Roni's ambition is to become a surveyor but we don't know what he wants to survey. Roni likes girls, sleep food hunting and music. He dislikes fights (and who doesn't?) and uninteresting school subjects. Roni's main activity is Prefects.

Roni Voigt

On October 13th, 1952 Dorothy Collins fell into Hare Bay, Nfld. When asked the reason, she proclaimed: "I'll never tell". Her ambition is to be a secretary but we think she is destined to run off to the armed forces with Olive and Linda. Her activities include Cheer-leading, Student Council and Sports. She just adores cute guys; arguments and sleeping, (now there's trouble). Dorothy says school days are okay but weekends are better.
