Superstar '78

Borealis '78 takes pride in presenting the All-Newfoundland and Labrador Superstar for 1978, Jean-Paul, a student at J.R.S.C. since Grade One, captured this title after eliminating 23 other regional superstars across Newfoundland and Labrador. He competed in Soccer, Basketball, Volleyball, Standing Long Jump, and many other physical routines in order to steal such a title. Once again, congratulations Jean-Paul and good luck in your career.

NORTHERN NEWS AND VARIETY/RICHARD AND B. A. RYAN

Last Will and Testament

I, NEIL AMYOTTE, hereby leave all my pencil stubs to Mr. Sheppard to rent to his other students for next year and leave this school with dignity.

I, LYNN ANSARA, do hereby leave one insult to Carl Walsh, my badminton racket to Renee Demers and a quiet library to Mrs. Doyle.

I, CLAUDE BAREFOOT, leave my high heel boots to Mr. Babin.

I, REJEAN BARRIAULT, here-bye leave all my worthless possessions in my locker for future grade elevens. To Mr. McCara I leave my badminton racket though he won't need it if he only plays Mr. Wicks. I leave my brother the job of returning all the books I borrowed off Mr. Sheppard. To Mr. Condon I can't leave anything yet, but he'll get my first dented fender.

I, SHONNIE BAZILSKY, do hereby leave to Peter and Bryan my Grade XI textbooks with the answers written inside.

I, THERESA BOONE, do hereby leave my 8:35 A.M. trail to Butt's room.

I, DARLENE BRAZIL, hereby leave my English books and my English studies to the next unfortunate person. P.S. Good luck to the next student who gets my locker.

I, RICK BURSEY, hereby leave only to return again next year. If the school's lucky and I'm not.

I, CATHY-ANN BUSSEY, Leave my brilliant mind to Mr. Taylor and My all-female body to Dave Boone.

Eye, SYLVAIN CARON, hearbye sirendher me Thorsorus too Mizzes Jesso sew hit bee doenhated (she whil cell hit) two hay grade 11 stewdent ov 79, two sumone whew kneeds hit has mutch has eye kneeded it.

I, BERN COOK, do hereby leave my Speller to Mis Jesseau.

I, JOE COURTNEY, to hereby leave J.R.S.C. and thank the teachers for putting up with me.

I, JIM DEAN, leave Mr. MacCara in peace; Mr. Sheppard, my undone Physics homework; My sweat socks to Mr. Walters, and my locker to some unfortunate grade XI student.

I, JEAN PAUL DEMERS, hereby leave my basketball and volleyball uniforms to Mr. Walters, my broken badminton racket to Mr. MacCara, my red sneakers to Mr. Taylor and Mr. Collins. And finally, I leave my 200 pushups from Mr. Walters to any poor fellow who wants them.

I, KARMELA FERETYCKI, leave my Chemistry notes to Renee Demers and my green eraser to Morley Knight to throw around to his heart's content.

I, DONNA FIZZARD, would like to leave my thanks and appreciation to all teachers at J.R.S.C.

I, SAM FLANIGAN, hereby leave my long hours of hard study to those less fortunate than I.

LABRADOR WEST SAFETY COUNCIL/VARIETY SHELF

- I, GARY FLYNN, of sound mind and "body" leave all of my high marks ? to those who will need them.
- I, GRACE FLYNN, do hereby leave the position of President of the Student Council to the next unlucky fool who takes it over, and my body to Rejean?
- I, ISAAC GOULDING, of sound body and debatably sound mind hereby leave J. R. S. C. to give all my teachers a rest in their old age.
- I, JULIE HART, leave my folders of notes, hand cream and first aid kit (fingernail clippers, files, polish) to someone who is organized and loves their fingernails. I also leave a note of thanks for all my teachers and friends. P.S. Good luck to whoever gets my locker.
- I, DENIS HAYWARD, of sound mind and a great looking body, leave my humor to Mr. Butt who desperately needs it (and fast).
- I, MAISIE HOBEN, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Gary, Loretta and Mandella my grade eleven textbooks, and encyclopedias in hope that they appreciate learning as much as I do.
- I, LEEANNE JOANISSE, of sound mind? and body do hereby leave my most precious possessions, my rings, to Mr. Butt since he loves them so much.
- I, MORLEY KNIGHT, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my locker to Della in hopes that she will cease writing on it even if I do deserve it.
- I, BRENDA LEBLANC, of no mind and little body, hereby leave the smallest desk in Butt's class to the next shortest person, the requirement is to be 2.5 centimeters. I also leave the next person with enough nerve to go in a car rally with Mr. Wicks. I also thank all my teachers for putting up with me.
- I, ANNETTE LEYENAAR, being of unstable mind and less stable body, do hereby bequeath to Sarah my Hallowe'en costume and the "bumps" that filled it in hopes that she benefits as much from them as I did. To Gail I leave my hair and the chore of washing it.
- I, SARAH MacINTYRE, of great mind and body, leave it to Gail.
- I, RHONDA MACKEY, do hereby leave all my hair behind, and all the pains of broken bones, to the next clumsy person. P.S.: Thanks J.R.S. for twelve great years.
- I, PATRICIA MacWILLIAMS, hereby leave all my detention slips of dententions I never served to Mr. McCara in hope that he will find them useful next year.
- I, PAULE MENARD, hereby leave my seat in the Physics Room to any poor girl (if any) who wants it. Especially if she is the only girl in that class.
- I, DENIS McDONALD, hereby leave my Earth Science book to any Grade XI Student next year, who is absent-minded enough as to take Geology with Mr. Sheppard, and listen to his great(??) jokes.
- I, GAIL MURLEY, being of questionable mind and body, do hereby leave to Mr. Wicks a book of diet, recipes and to Sarah, "Who wants it?"

R. MADORE AND ASSOCIATES/MANSTAN DRUGS

I, BRENDA O'BRIEN, hereby leave my patience which I don't have, to any Grade 10 who is foolish enough to take Mr. Butt's Trigonometry next year.

I, PORKY O'BRIEN, hereby leave all my years of Grade Eleven to the teachers who survived it. I also leave my ear plugs to the smartest student in Grade 10.

I, BOB O'LEARY, hereby release Mrs. Jesseau of her thriving struggle to get me to use CAPITAL letters.

I, THERESA O'LEARY, leave to the Grad Committee of 1978-79 all the groans and pains that come with it. But most of all, I joyfully leave.

I, PAUL ORAM, leave an enormous supply of wake-up pills to any student who takes Mr. Babin's Science class.

I, YVONNE ORAM, do hereby leave my 4 inch heels to T.M. to help her see over grade eleven.

I, STEPHEN PEDDLE, would like to leave all my Chemistry books to any Grade 10 who wants them.

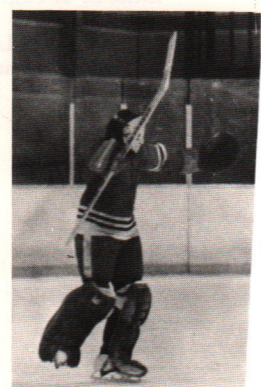

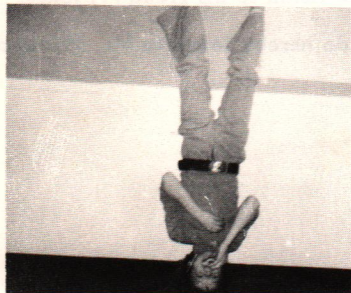

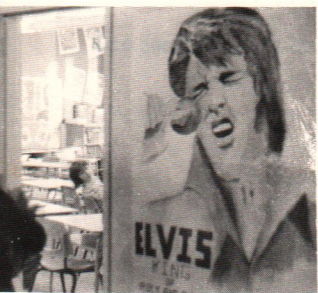

I, CRAIG PORTER, having no mind and (?) body leave my log book to some poor unknowing Grade 10 student.

I, RHONDA POWER, do hereby leave my split-ends for the next bored split Grade XI to pick at.

I, ANDY STEEVES, do hereby leave my Chemistry text and lab book to Mr. Babin, whom I'm sure could make better use of them than I could.

I, DEBBIE STEVENSON, being of unsound mind, do hereby leave my laugh to a serious grade 11 to be and all my Algebra knowledge to Cliff Dobbin whether he passes or not.

I, IVAN STOBES, leave my electric razor to Mr. Ford, so he can improve his face.
